THE RESIDENCY,
BANGALORE.

25th January 1943.

My dear Mr Thumboo Chetty

I have now heard from Colonel Daly on the subject of the son of the Thakore of Sanand. I enclose the relevant extract. I might mention in passing that Mr. Egerton has received a letter from a friend of his, for he has served in Kathiawar, Thakore Ranjit Singh C.I.E. of Jambughoda, Gujerat States Agency, concerning his son with a view to an alliance. If His Highness is interested Mr. Egerton can let you have details.

Yours sincerely

Amatya Siromani T. Thumboo Chetty Esq.,
BA.,OBE.,
Private Secretary to His Highness the
Maharaja of Mysore.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
NEW DELHI.

21st January 1951.

My dear Maharaja,

The Prime Minister and I would welcome an opportunity of discussing with the Rajpramukhs and Governors the general situation in the country. I propose that a Conference may be held in Delhi on the 16th and 17th March 1951. I hope that these dates will be convenient to Your Highness. It will give me great pleasure if you and one Secretary or other Staff Officer will stay in Government House during your visit to Delhi, but if Your Highness prefers to make your own arrangements, I have no objection.

I enclose a tentative agenda for the Conference. Would you kindly let me know if there is any particular aspect of these matters with which you would like the Conference to deal? Would you also kindly let me have any suggestions as to other matters which you think could be usefully discussed? I should be grateful if your suggestions could reach me by, say, the 10th February, so that the final list of subjects can be circulated to all the Rajpramukhs and Governors in sufficient time to enable them to brief themselves for the discussion.

Yours sincerely,
Rajendra Prasad

His Highness Maharaja Sri
Jaya Chamaraj Wadiyar
Bahadur, G.C.B., G.C.S.I.,
Maharaja of Mysore,
Mysore.
